Annual report of ACCA activities January 13, 2007

In 2006, we had the following activities:

1. In January, annual banquet at Hilton hotel, San Gabriel with honorable guest, Dr. Reed B. Phillips, president of SCUHS. We had election of new ACCA officers after 5-6 years of in-activities. The meeting was held after Dr. Tong's re-licensing seminar which was co-sponsored by ACCA.
2. New ACCA website is set up. Thanks to Dr. David Phan and Dr. Charles Lin.
3. In February, Taiwan legislator visited SCUHS and local chiropractors.
4. In March, Dr. Chang-Yu John Hsieh and Dr. Charles Lin were invited to attend the public hearing on Chiropractic Act in Taiwan.
5. In May, ACCA presented our protest to the Taiwan Economic and Cultural Office in LA against the Taiwan Government's false claims on Chiropractic and Chiropractors. We had newspaper and TV media coverage.
6. In June, Dr. Gerald Liu visited LA and ACCA officers took him to Palm Spring to visit Dr. Whitlock who is the son-in-law of US Senator.
7. In August, Dr. Tsang from Hong Kong visited LA and he shared the status of practice in Hong Kong to our ACCA student members and doctors.
8. In September, ACCA picnic at Lake Perris.
9. In October, Dr. Tong helped CCLA students to have Health talk to residents of a senior retirement center.
10. Since September, ongoing planning activities are for Asian Expo and TV promotion.

Thanks to ACCA officers, Dr. Jane Yeh, and Dr. Alan Wong. Without their willingness and commitment to help, these activities would not have occurred.

If there is any more information needed, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely yours,

Dr. Chang-Yu John Hsieh, MS, PT, DC, CA
President of ACCA, 2006-2007
